About Immersion

Immersion is an Irish company that specialises in One-to-One English teaching to non-native speakers for all purposes whether professional, business, academic, general or pleasure. We have many years experience and have built an international reputation for excellence in our teaching, accommodation and overall service.

The company is managed by Conor Killeen who has bachelor and master's degrees in Law from University College, Dublin. He is also a qualified (Trinity College, London Cert. TESOL) and highly experienced English language teacher having worked in the one-to-one field in Europe for many years. Our company is a small one with a focus on quality rather than quantity and we are committed to providing the highest standard tuition and accommodation.

During the course you will stay with your teacher's family where a unique one-to-one course is designed and taught to meet your individual needs. In this way you are assured the benefit of an appropriately directed course and thereby enjoy a proper immersion experience in the language and culture. This is a proven method of language learning where the immersion experience is a vital component so as to ensure maximum progress over a short period of time. One-to-one immersion is the ideal solution for rapid progress.

We at Immersion are experienced in all aspects of One-to-One teaching and with English language immersion. Your teacher will be welcoming, experienced and qualified with a proven record of success. You will receive individual attention and thoroughly enjoy your experience meeting new people and perhaps making lasting friendships while learning and practising your English!

What better way to improve your language skills than in the comfort and relaxing ambience of your carefully selected teacher's home in Dublin!

One-to-One Courses

We offer two principal types of course although any type of course can be designed according to your individual needs. We only offer one-to-one tuition so we can plan courses that meet your specific needs. Firstly you decide whether you want to improve your English for professional/business purposes, generally or for a specific purpose. Below is a very brief description of some of our courses.

Our Professional/Business Course is ideal for those who wish to improve their English in the context of their profession or business. These courses are designed to ensure that lessons are presented in a business setting with specific reference to your job. Language needs will be identified and lessons carefully planned to cover those areas appropriate to your career.

We offer other courses such as Legal English and many other professional/business courses under our English for Specific Purposes (ESP) Programme - please let us know your requirements and we will design a course that meets your exact needs. Also for Exams + the young.

Our General Course will appeal to those who wish to improve their English in everyday situations. This course is appropriate for those who want to improve their general English for any purpose including travel, social and pleasure and for those preparing for examinations such as the Cambridge Examinations. As with all our courses your specific needs will be identified in the first lesson and the course will be designed to meet these needs. Our one-to-one method allows for continuous monitoring of progress and evolving language needs so you can be assured that your teacher will be flexible to ensure your course is relevant to your needs.

Good pronunciation - so often neglected - is a major component of all our courses as it is vital to effective communication.

General

Lessons are 50 minutes in duration each and take place in the morning / early afternoon Monday to Friday in the comfort of your teacher's home. The schedule will be discussed and agreed with your teacher on the first morning however it is normal to have lessons completed in the morning/early afternoon. This will enable you to maximise your free time to explore the city and surrounding area.

Book/Reserve your course directly through our web site at www.immersion.ie, by post, phone or through our local agent: (details below)
